Evajean Elaine Siddons Masariu, 90, passed away August 30, 2012. She was born in Bainbridge, Indiana on March 26, 1922 and was the daughter of Carl and Laura (Whitaker) Siddons, who preceded her in death. A younger brother, Carter Max Siddons, also preceded her in death. Evajean grew up on the Westside of Indianapolis and was a graduate of Washington High School. She married Martin Albert Masariu on July 22, 1946 at Sts. Peter and Paul Cathedral. He preceded her in death on April 28, 1991. Evajean worked as a dental assistant until the birth of her first daughter, Marie. Being a homemaker gave her the time to be actively involved in her daughters' lives serving as assistant Girl Scout leader, scorekeeper for the softball team, volunteering in the school cafeteria and monitoring the playground during recess. She was actively involved in both the Cathedral Grade School's Mother's Club and the St. Jude Grade School's Mother's Club. The highlight of her life was becoming a grandmother and a great-grandmother. As their most loyal supporter, she faithfully attended ball games, dance recitals, horse shows, and school events. CG (Crazy Grandma), as she was affectionately known, loved spoiling each and every one of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A visitation will be held Tuesday, September 4, 2012 at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E.
