“ Cheri and Bill...I had not heard from your mom for awhile, so for some reason I googled her and discovered she had passed away. I had called her back in October and I think we talked for over an hour. She was telling me about her great-grandson, Noah, and I was telling her about my grandson, Noah and grand daughter, Maci (who is my mother made over). She seemed to be fine so reading this is a shock. I knew she had had a stroke several years ago, so I hope she did not suffer with anything. Take care and I am so sorry!
