“ *Sorry this is so late, but wanted to share a memory of Flo and her sisters my family passed on to me as a child.
Cynthia McIntire Blowers is sending this message. I live in Alexandria, IN. Florence's father Thomas (Everett) was my Grandfather's brother. My Grandfather was Raymond (Jack) McIntire of Whiteland, IN. My father was Wayne McIntire. Now that I have established who I am I can remember during family dinners they (Dad, Jane, and Don, your cousins) would talk about visiting cousins in the city and how much fun they had. In later years my dad visited Mary when he was in CA for business. Aunt Jan and I visited Mary and Florence a couple of time in the past years when they were in assisted living. Florence was very chatty the day we were there. Mary was paying bills. Jane's husband Bill Stotts did Mary's funeral. My husband and I also attended.
Our family is getting very small .
My sympathy to your family,
Cynthia Blowers*
