“ It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Mike, a beloved father, devoted Christian, and fellow veteran. Mike passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and camaraderie.

Mike was more than just a friend's father; he was a dear friend to many. His openness and willingness to share his personal experiences allowed him to connect with people on a profound level, making everyone who knew him feel like family. His kindness and generosity knew no bounds, and his faith was a guiding light to those around him.

As a veteran, Mike served his country with honor and distinction. His stories of service were not just tales of bravery and duty, but also lessons in resilience, sacrifice, and brotherhood. His military background was a source of pride, and he carried the values of honor and integrity into every aspect of his life.

Mike's Christian faith was the cornerstone of his life. He was a man of deep conviction, who lived his faith through actions of love, compassion, and service to others. He found joy in helping those in need and was always ready with a kind word or a helping hand.

To his family, Mike was a pillar of strength and love. He was a devoted father who cherished every moment with his children, providing them with unwavering support and guidance. His love and dedication will continue to be a source of comfort and inspiration to them.

Mike's presence in our lives was a blessing, and his absence will be deeply felt. We find solace in the knowledge that he is now at peace, reunited with his Creator, and watching over us with the same care and compassion he showed in life.

Rest in peace, Mike. Your memory will forever be etched in our hearts, and your legacy of love and faith will continue to inspire us all. Katrina, and Hobbs family you are in our prayers.

“  A day to celebrate

This is for Thursday 12-2 for my dad, Floyd Mike Phillips

We are all going to try to wear purple in honor of dad's favorite color. We are keeping this a day of celebration and asking if you try to refrain from wearing all black. This is not mourning. Dad would want us to celebrate him. He always said he wanted us to rejoice and remember his smile and the fun times. Share stories and memories. Let's keep the day about a memorial and celebration of his life and legacy.

We are also wearing casual and comfortable attire , dress shirts, polo shirts, sun dresses, or whatever makes you comfortable. Those who know him will know he was not about looking fancy! He wants you to have fun and not feel left out. This day will be about him and all of the great times we shared with him and all of his loved ones over the years.

Please share with anyone you know that will coming to celebrate on Thursday.
