“ Dear Chris and family, We understand all too well the loss you are experiencing. I am sure your Dad was so very proud of all of you. May you find peace and comfort in the love he had for all of you, and know that we and many others, are keeping your family and your dad in our thoughts and prayers. Kelli & Mark Searles

“ The loss of Dennis DiGiusto is so very heartbreaking. My thoughts and prayers go out to his wife, sons and entire family. Dennis and i have been good friends and coworkers since the early 80's. He seemed like family to me. I can't describe 30 years of friendship, but i do know this - Dennis loved a good joke, he loved being around people, he loved his family, and he loved his job. He was a kind, caring person. When i heard of his illness, I called, I'm glad we spoke and acknowleged our love for one another. I'll miss my old friend and look back at all the great memories we shared. He will always be in my heart and mind. Rest in peace Dennis DiGiusto. Harold Montgomery
