“ Fred is the father of our daughter-in-law, Holly Dennett. He was a wonderful & gracious man who always made us feel like one of the family. We were fortunate enough to have been able to visit him and his dear friend Jean in Hilton Head. We also visited them in The Villages in Florida and had a wonderful time with them. He was great fun to be with. He loved the Indy 500 and Denny was able to join him in several of the races as well as pre-race golf outings. A super great dad and grandfather and great-grandfather. He will be greatly missed. Just knowing him was a special time in our lives and we will always have special memories of him and Jean as well as his extended family.
