“ I have a lot of good memories with my uncle Freddie.. hanging out in your garage with you and my dad, we built a mini bike and you used a washing machine motor and painted it red and painted Lil Walt on the sides. I remember half of the family over on bates street playing guitars, harmonicas and singing. You would give me the keys to your car and let me drive it around the parking lot across the street. Uncle Freddie you probably never knew all the beautiful memories I have of me and you. You taught me so much and was the funniest, uncle Freddie the way you was just amazed me... THE BEST UNCLE I EVER HAD... uncle Freddie you and aunt Becky has had and will forever have a piece of my heart... I love you uncle Freddie...

“ At a time like this there are no words that can help you heal from the loss of Fred. He was your husband, sidekick, best friend and eternal soul mate. I will not remember Freddie as he was the last few years, I will remember him as he was when we all had fun together, laughed together, sang together and made good memories to reflect on. That is the Freddie I will forever see and love in my mind and heart. Becky, you and your mom have my deepest sympathy.
Much love to you,
Aunt Faye
