“ My favorite Fred story: I was hanging some homemade ghost Halloween decorations on my tree and Fred was driving by. He stopped, rolled down the window, and said "those aren't going to scare anybody!" I will miss Fred.

“ *Dear Barb,
I am so very sorry for your loss. We will remember you in our prayers. Fred had us come by your house and sent me home with some of his old Conner Prairie clothes. I still have them and I wear them often. Every time I wear that straw hat, or those plaid pants, or the black wool pants with the wonderful suspenders, or one of the cravats, I will be remembering Fred and his generosity. May God bless and keep you and your loved ones in this time of loss.
