

Frederick Thomas "Fred" Kehl III

November 30, 1969 - October 6, 2024

Frederick T. "Fred" Kehl III, 54, of Greenwood, passed away peacefully October 6, 2024, surrounded by his children. He fought until he physically couldn't anymore. He was on dialysis for 18 years for a lifelong disease/illness.

Fred was born in Indianapolis, November 30, 1969 to the late Buddy and Karen Davis. He always loved being surrounded by his family, and multiple conversations were had about his childhood with his brother, Mickey "Bubs" Kehl and other family and friends. Fred graduated from Roncalli High School in 1988 and went on to have four children. He became an ordained minister in 2019 and thought that would be the coolest thing to list in his obituary. Fred loved tortillas, crushed ice, the beach, baseball, making people laugh, but most importantly his family. He will be missed every single day.

Please come share your favorite stories of Fred with us and share some laughs at the visitation, Saturday, October 12, 2024 from 12 noon until 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 East Washington Street.

Fred is survived by his children, Brogan Davis, Megan Kehl (Quinten Roach), Lauren Kehl (George Davidson), and Peighton Kehl; and his "beauties", Delilah, Briella, Vayda and Hazel. He was preceded in death by his brother, Mickey Ryan "Bubs" Kehl.
