“ To Gary's Family, We are sharing the news on Tech's Facebook page. I was shocked to hear about Gary's passing. There are so many people sharing how they knew him and what a nice guy he was in school. Gary and I go back to the Brightwood days. R.I.P. old friend. It sounds like you had a wonderful life! Sending prayers to the family as they go thru this time.

“ To Pam, Cathy, Gary’s children and grandchildren, and family,

I was shocked and very saddened to read the e-mail from Aunt Liz on Wednesday morning informing me of Gary’s passing. Thursday morning when I awoke, my sadness began to soften as I was overcome with fond memories from many years ago recalling summer vacations with sister Sandy and our mom and dad as we drove from Rhode Island to Indiana to visit Grandpa Rott, and all of our aunts, uncles, and cousins. I saw all of their smiling faces this morning.

I remembered visiting Uncle Charles’ and Aunt Betty’s house, where we would enjoy picnic lunches and play in the backyard with Jerry, Gary, and Cathy. I hope that similar memories will help to ease your pain as you gather at this sad time. All of you and Gary are in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,
Ron Osowski*
