“ Listen to our hearts breaking with yours...

Two moments stand out to me when I think of Gary, both of them as teens: the Halloween Gary and I went to the Franklin Road CoC youth party as priest and nun (had to hide all that red hair under something!); and the day one of his beloved knives slipped and cut his hand--it was a spurting gusher! Fun times with a gentle soul. We all were lucky to have him in our lives, even long ago.

Much love and God's peace to all Gary has left behind to cherish his memory.

A life lived with gentle humor...

I first met Gary while working at St. Vincent Hospital. Our paths crossed while he worked on medical imaging equipment, and I worked with patients. Short conversations led to a great friendship. Gary helped us shop for our son's first computer, and worked for hours on the computer, with me, designing covers for some of my inspirational books. Pat and I so enjoyed the times we spent "jawing" over Euchre, after dinner, at each other's homes.

May the memories of his gentle humor brighten your hearts.
