“ Tony, Ron, and family, My deepest sympathies go out to you. As others have written here, George's passing brings up a lot of memories. Remembering childhood visits to his house in Indianapolis as well as summer days spent fishing on the St. Lawrence with him will always bring a smile to my face. Rest easy, Uncle George.

“ My heart goes out to Tony, Ron, and their families. Rest in peace Uncle George. I have two separate parts of my life which include the fondest memories of Uncle George. The first being when I was a boy growing up; when Colleen, Tony, Lance, and I would stay up late knowing that Uncle George was driving from Indiana to visit us and that we would all smile, laugh, and have a great time as a family together. All of the times spent at our family reunions in Dad's backyard with everyone. All of the times at the camp on the St. Lawrence River. The fondest being the summer when Tony and Ron came with Uncle George and spent a great deal of time with us at the camp in Ogdensburg. The second being when I was 20 and spent a year in Indianapolis with Uncle George, Uncle Joe, Ron, Tony, and their families. Uncle George was still on the road working a lot, but when he came home, we would spend many lazy afternoons and nights simply talking, laughing, and getting to know each other as men. He treated me like a man, and made me grow as a person simply by listening to me, and giving his passive advice to me. We would sit outside on the patio of Joe's house talking with me until late into the night. We had many laughs, especially about how stubborn we, as the Corrice family are. There are lessons to be learned from this. I will always love you Uncle George. Rest in peace. Your nephew. Sean.

“ Tony, Ron and Family, As I am writing this message I am remembering those vacations our family spent at Uncle George's home in Indianapolis. It was an important part of our childhood. It was an opportunity to become acquainted with our cousins. I also remember the summer Uncle George, Tony, and Ron visited Ogdensburg and spent some time at my grandparent's camp on the St. Lawrence River. These memories have lingered. I am certain George is with Margie right now. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that prayers will continue. Love you all. Colleen

“ I am so sorry to hear that Uncle George passed away. I will always have very fond memories of the time I shared with him, especially when he visited us in New York as kids, and when I lived out in Indiana. My prayers are with your entire family.
