“ Dear George, You were the oldest of our family, the tallest and the only boy in the family and the rest of us all looked up to you with much respect. It must have been hard being the only boy with six sisters. I remember some of the things you and your boyfriends made like the cave with a roof large enough for several kids to be inside. The baseball field south of our house, the wooden stilts. We all got to enjoy them as well. You even showed us how to make the stilts and walk on them. Also the kites you made and helped us fly. Thanks For These Memories. We love and miss you. Heaven has a new bright star and I'm sure you are happy. Jo Ann

“ As a young child, I just knew Uncle George as the Gentle Giant as tall as grandpa. During visits to Indiana as an adult I got to spend more time with Uncle George including a very happy memorable day golfing with Uncle George and my dad. Uncle George's sharp wit and good humored observations provided several good laughs that day. I came to know Uncle George as a very good, kind-hearted, funny and caring man. I will miss him and Indiana will never be the same for me now. Uncle George, I hope your happy up in heaven with grandpa, grandma and my aunts Betty, Marsha, Myrna and Marie. Love, your nephew Philip. - Wall NJ

George was one of the most kind, loving and humorous man I have ever met. I always looked forward to spending time chatting with him at the many family events I spent with you guys over the years. My sympathies and empathies are with you all. George will surely be missed but I know his wonderful memories will remain forever-much love-Jane
