Dear Maxine and family, we share with each of you our sincere condolences at the loss of George. I have had your family on my mind lately and I was going through some cards I had saved and found one from you all, I decided to see if I could find you on the computer. As soon as I typed in your names his obituary came up. I can't find the address I had for you all. He will be missed by all who were blessed to know him. Each of you are in our prayers. Carlin and Barbara
