

George R. Stum, Jr.

February 9, 1931 - May 26, 2009

78, of Indianapolis, passed away May 26, 2009. He was born in Indianapolis February 9, 1931 to George R. and Joy (Dickinson) Stum. George served his country in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. He retired from Ford Motor Co. where he worked as an electrician for over 20 years. George's previous employment included working in the construction industry as a union electrician, and with the Indianapolis Star where he worked as an electrician and electronic troubleshooter. George enjoyed memberships in the Oakland Masonic Lodge #140, the Murat Shrine, Indianapolis Valley Scottish Rite, IBEW, and was a former member of the American Legion Post #495. Visitation will be Sunday, May 31, 2009 from 2:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. with funeral services Monday at 1:00 p.m. George is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Joanna Stum; children, Greg Stum, Brenda Pritchard (Steve & Spike), James Stum (Sarah), Leighann Patterson (Les); sister, Bette Smock, of Greenville, SC; grandchildren, J.R. and Lorri Stum, Zachary and Cameron Patterson, and one great-grandson, Cole Laniohan. Memorial contributions may be made to Indiana University Medical Center and/or Oakland Masonic Lodge. A special thank you to the physicians, nurses, and staff at IU Hospital Intensive Care Units for their special care and concern. Also, a special thank you to Dr. Rafael Rosario.