

Georgianne Schilling

September 21, 1930 - April 22, 2019

Georgianne L. Schilling

Fort Thomas, Kentucky--88, passed away peacefully on Monday, April 22, after receiving the prayerful consolation of the sacraments. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Georgianne was preceded in death by her beloved parents, George D. and Helen E.(Sperk) Schilling, as well as her five devoted siblings, Dalton, Walter, David, Roger , and Katherine Kassaw. During the Korean War Georgianne proudly served her country, attaining the rank of Corporal in the Women's Army Corps. She later became a member of the Women's Army Corps Foundation. She ultimately settled in St. Louis, Missouri, where she successfully embarked upon a 32-year-career with the Monsanto Corporation. Georgianne's warmth, intelligence, wit, and kindness endeared her to all fortunate enough to have known her. She was a dear sister-in-law, wonderful aunt to her many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and cousins as well as to her numerous friends. A special friend, among the many, was Joyce Crowell, now deceased. Georgianne will be especially missed by her loving caregivers, Veronica Sperk Mitchell and Mary Nell Brandner, as well as the Carmelite Sisters and devoted staff of Carmel Manor who cared for her with love and compassion. Georgianne will be most deeply missed by her dedicated nephew David Schilling and his wife Jeanne.

Honoring her wishes, in lieu of flowers, those desiring to make a contribution in Georgianne's memory may do so by donating to the charity of their choice or to Carmel Manor, 100 Carmel Manor Road, Fort Thomas, KY 41075.

Interment will take place at Holy Cross Cemetery, Cleveland, with a private graveside memorial service following. Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Mortuaries, Indianapolis, IN.
