

Geraldine G. "LaFollette" Lawson

October 18, 1926 - December 7, 2011

85, of Indianapolis, passed away December 7, 2011. She was born October 18, 1926, to the late Omar and Fannie Duncan. A lifelong resident of Indianapolis, Geraldine was a graduate of Arsenal Tech High School, and employed with RCA as an inspector, retiring in 1986. She was a longtime member of St. Mark Catholic Church. A memorial service will be held Sunday, December 11, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. with visitation from 3:00 p.m. until the time of service. Geraldine is survived by her loving daughter, Cheryl L. Stevens (Dan); grandchildren, Donna D. McGurer-Bryant (Scott), Jason LaFollette and Tammy Brown (Brian); great-grandchildren, Andrew and Jake Bryant, Robert Brown, Rachel Bailey (Terry) and Ally Brown; great-great-grandchild, Jalen Bailey; and brother, Bobby Duncan. Three sisters, Edith Owens, Doris Perry and Susie Campbell; two brothers, George and Bud Duncan; and a son, Raymond W. LaFollette, preceded her in death. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Parkinson Awareness Foundation, 4755 Kingsway Dr., Ste. 333, Indianapolis, IN, 46205.