

Geraldine Uhl Raymond Schweppe

December 13, 1933 - March 9, 2018

Geraldine Uhl Raymond Schweppe, 84, of Indianapolis, passed away March 9, 2018. "Gerri" was born December 13, 1933 in Philadelphia, PA, to the late Daniel and Georgia (Uhl) Raymond. She was the youngest of four children born into a proud military (Army) family. Gerri grew up in Crawford, Nebraska and attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where she met and married her beloved husband, Lou. Gerri supported her husband's work as a minister in the United Church of Christ and worked as an elementary and preschool teacher. For the past 11 years, Gerri was a vibrant member of the Brookdale retirement community in Castleton, where she built many cherished relationships. She was gifted in music and art and had a deep love of nature and her family.

Visitation will be Friday, March 16, 2018 from 1:00 p.m. until the time of the Memorial Service at 2:00 p.m. at Faith Presbyterian Church, 8170 Hague Road, Indianapolis.

Gerri is survived by her daughter, Susan Mairet (Doug); son, Fred Schweppe (Michele); grandchildren, Colin and Katie Mairet, Jessica Cates (David) and Sadie Schweppe; and great-grandson, Riley Cates. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lou Schweppe.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 3816 Paysphere Circle, Chicago, IL 60674. Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel. www.shirleybrothers.com.

“ For many years, as long as she was able, Gerri joined in the fun at the Mairet annual Indy 500 weekend. No matter that our group kept getting larger and larger, Gerri took an interest in each of us. So it was fitting that on the most recent Memorial Day holiday, when she could no longer join us, Heidi and I went to visit her, sitting on a covered veranda at her place of residence. A lovely afternoon. She was always easy to talk with, and had a wide ranging area of interests; including, of course, Nebraska and Purdue sports.
