“ Many years ago Gerry & I (as well as hubby Wallace) worked together at Community Hospital. Gerry remained so upbeat even in the midst of moments of chaos. She had an encouraging word and a lovely smile for any one she encountered during her work responsibilities. It was such a great pleasure to see & visit with Gerry when time allowed and we were blessed to call her "friend".

Our earthly memories will be like gems for our heart's gem pouch, yet the greater gift is knowing that we will see Gerry when our life's journey continues into eternity with Jesus. Gerry had faith in what Jesus said and now knows the reality of John 11:25-26, "Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life; he (Gerry) who believes in Me will live even if he (Gerry) dies, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die". One day Gerry will greet us along with our Savior Jesus.

Dear Dilley family, may you all as Gerry's legacy cherish your memories until you see each other again. I leave you with these words from the prophet Isaiah, hoping to offer some comfort as you walk this mighty tempest of grieve & sorrow ~ "... I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" (Isaiah 41:10). In Sympathy, Wallace & Anna Vaughn
