

Ginette "Gina" Loomis

July 30, 1925 - December 28, 2014

Ginette "Gina" Loomis,

89, born in Bernay, France, July 30, 1925, died peacefully on December 28, 2014. She was a World War II bride who met and married William R. Loomis just after the liberation of Paris. Bill then brought her to Ft. Wayne, IN, to be close to his sisters, find work, and start their family. He passed away in 1964. Gina is survived by her devoted daughter and son-in-law, Cindy & Mike McCoun; four grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. Her son, Philip Loomis, preceded her in death in 2001.

Gina was a special person and was endearing to many people. Cindy is sincerely grateful to all of Gina's caregivers the past nine years since her stroke, especially Cerise and Betty. Most recently, the loving staff at Allisonville Meadows surrounded her with affection and attention, and helped her pass peacefully to her eternal home.

Please send any memorial contributions in her name to St. Vincent Hospice, as a special thanks for their wonderful help. Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
