

Gizella Hideg

October 29, 1930 - August 11, 2019

Gizella Hideg,

88, of Fishers, Indiana, passed away August 11, 2019. She was born October 29, 1930 in Sibiu, Romania (formerly Nagyszeben, Hungary) in the province of Transylvania to Miklos and Anna Hriczan. Gizella married Laszlo Hideg, and he preceded her in death.

Gizella (Gizi) was a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother and a great friend to many. She loved all her friends but especially her best friend Delphine. She was very social and would make everyone laugh and was the first person to lend a hand. She was charming and cute and her accent added to it all.

Gizella is survived by her sons, Mik Hideg (Karey), Steve Hideg (Anne Marie) and Laszlo Hideg (Marianne); and her grandchildren, Alex, Emily, Luke and Christopher.

There will be a memorial visitation at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel located at 9900 Allisonville Road on Thursday, August 22, 2019 from 5 to 8 pm. Please feel free to share any stories you may have of her.

Arrangements are private and entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.

“ *Mrs Hideg was one of the best Lunch Moms ever!
Especially loved it when she came back from Canada with small, fruit taffy as a treat.
Always cheerful, and helpful, kind and gracious with a good story to tell.
She will be missed and prayed for often.
Hugs to you all from the Derrys!*

“ I met Gizi delivering the mail. She was so generous and loving! Every time she knew I'd be delivering to her house, she would invite me in for cookies and hot cocoa; then she'd send cookies home for me to share with my children. I always loved my visits with her and she will always be dear to my heart. May her memory live on with those she left behind. God has called her home and I look forward to seeing you again one day Gizi. Love, Teresa “Gizella Hideg, was always know as Mrs. Hideg to us. We were neighbors as we grew up down the street from her and her family as children in Dearborn Heights, MI. She was always such a nice lady. She would always give us Hungarian candy. She was always so nice that we would just walk down the street to visit her. She was a wonderful Mom to her sons and was a widow very young and raised the boys very well on her own. I wish her peace and may the family live with the wonderful memories they have of their Mom. Hugs to all!
