

Gloria Jean Althardt-Brown

February 8, 1948 - May 26, 2007

Gloria Jean Althardt-Brown, 59, began God's journey of life on February 8, 1948 born to smart, truly loving parents, Walter and Violet Kruse Althardt. Being a Hoosier farm girl, Gloria loved the outdoors, her dog, her cow and her sheep. She was most spiritually connected to God outside under His umbrella of love. Gloria spent 38 years devoted to her life's love of teaching in the Warren Township school system. She is survived by her life's greatest gifts, her daughters, Beth Brown-Hensley and Cari Brown-Morris; her sweetheart Gary Bowers; her loving brothers John and Ron Althardt and their families; her great sons-in-law Damon Morris and James Hensley as well as her 5 grandchildren Gabe, Gwen, Rafe, baby Morris, and Sam; her Aunts Janet Harting and Helen Case; Warren and Eileen Miessen, Dorothy Everett, her adopted son Carl Garrison; her true friends and all of the young people she has loved. She is preceded in death by her loving, caring parents. Accepting God's promotion and being right with God Gloria has passed to God's next dimension. Services will be held Wednesday, May 30, 2007 at 2:00PM at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. with visitation Tuesday, May 29, 2007 from 4:00PM until 8:00PM. Memorial contributions may be made to The Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, The Indiana Down Syndrome Foundation, The Ryan White Foundation, and or The American Cancer Society.
