“ Special!

Very special is best way to describe my dear friend Grace. She was like a big sister and I loved dearly.

We first met in Ottawa where we worked for several years selling real estate.

After we retired to our little island in the Pacific we often joked that she and I would take a cruise for her 100th birthday. That won't happen now, but it might be for the best.

She worked very hard;

She traveled far;

She has earned her rest;

Bye for now my dear friend
