“ Besides riding the school bus together all throughout grade school and junior high, Jason and I used to butt heads together often. As he liked to tease me on the bus. His Mother was also my fourth grade teacher and we lived shortly down the street together our whole life.
I feel for his family and cannot express enough love and support in such a hard time of grief.
He will be sadly missed and I hope he rests in peace.

“ Our thoughts are with you. No words can express how you must feel. Just letting you know, thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Wish I would have known, and would have come down. Thoughts of comfort and virtual support sent your way. To Aaron and Bryan and families Jason's children, and Brother Carl. How is Randy Jr. Doing? God bless, and keep you strong, safe and healthy.
