He attended Western Michigan University and Montcalm Community College, where he played basketball. He married Jane Crower in 1973. Greg worked for Burger King Corporation for 10 years before becoming a Burger King franchise owner/operator in 1983 of 16 restaurants in Lafayette, IN, and surrounding counties and 15 restaurants in the St. Louis, MO, area. He was a people person who truly appreciated his many dedicated employees. Greg went on to have a second career in commercial real estate brokerage and was employed by Resource Commercial Real Estate in Indianapolis, IN, for the past ten years.

Greg is survived by his wife of 45 years, Jane Smith; and their two daughters, Danielle (Brad) King of Indianapolis, IN, and Allison (Dan) James of Grand Ledge, MI; along with grandchildren, Jenna and Braden James of Grand Ledge, MI; brother, Gary Smith of St. Louis, MI; sister, Gloria (Bill) Kunik of Annapolis, MD; brother-in-law, Michael (Melissa) Crower of Midland, MI; sisters-in-law, Kate (Paul) Maitland of Brighton, MI, and Nora Crower of Gulf Shores, AL; cousins, Bill (Corrine) Smith of Sanford, MI, and Diane (Jerry) Kirkey of Alma, MI. and Elizabeth Fletcher; in-laws, Richard and Virginia Crower; and brother-in-law, John Crower.

Greg enjoyed playing in a golf league with a group of great friends and putting on an annual golf outing with his best buddies to benefit various charities. He also enjoyed fishing, especially with his grandchildren. Greg's favorite hobby was watching his grandchildren play their various sports-so much so, he recently moved closer to them for that very reason. Most of all, he loved spending time with his family and friends.

“ Jane, Danielle & Brad, Allison & Dan & family,

Terry and I are so sorry to hear of the passing of Greg. He was such a fun loving guy who showed love of his family! Of course he showed quite an ornery side too! It was always fun to be around your family! It's amazing how fast time passes. We enjoyed sharing in the weddings and the Purdue games also!

We are so disappointed that we are unable to attend the memorial service due to the weather. It would have been great to see you and your family!

Take care and bless you and your family!
