“ Sue was dear to my heart starting back in 1979.
I began a friendship with Cristi her oldest daughter .
Sue gave me a referral that got me a job at The Americana Nursing home where she worked as head nurse.
I followed this calling in caring for the elder through today's current date.
Thank you Sue for taking a chance on me..
I will always hold you dear in my heart.
You were a role model and mentor.

May your loving soul rest peaceful in Heaven.

I love you lady .

Love Always

“ Sue and I grew up together, attended Irvington Methodist church and school from #77 to Howe to DePauw. Her grandparents lived across the street from me on Lowell so we often "played" together as little girls. We intersected throughout life, the last being when she attended husband Bob Little's service in Indianapolis in March of 2023. She was bright, committed to good works and I know served her community and church with loyalty. Susan Stirling Little

“ My sympathy goes to Christy, Jenny and Craig on Sue's passing. She was a dynamic force and is truly missed. As a church friend, P.E.O. sister, and neighbor, my life intersected with Sue's for over 60 years. She always had good ideas, endless energy, the BEST recipes, and fierce loyalty to her family and friends. It's hard to imagine Irvington UMC without her. Rest in peace, my friend. Kitty Stewart
