

Hamilton B. "Mac" McMillan

May 22, 1933 - June 28, 2011

78, of Indianapolis, passed away June 28, 2011. He was born May 22, 1933 to Louis and Grace L. (Butler) McMillan. A resident of Indianapolis, Mac served his country in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He was a Master brick-layer, and the co-owner of Hickerson Instrument Co. Mac was a member of Wallace Street Evangelical Church. where he led the Men's Fellowship Breakfast for 20 years, was a praise and worship leader, and song writer. He smuggled bibles to China for the China Bible Mission, and was a member of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship. Most of all, he was a humble servant of God and a powerful witness of the Gospel leading to the salvation of many souls. He was a blessing to his family and all who met him, and will be greatly missed by those lives he touched. Visitation will be Saturday, July 2, 2011, from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Wallace Street Evangelical Church, 4805 E. 10th St., Indianapolis, 46201. Mac is survived by his loving wife of 9 years, Joyce (MacArthur) McMillan; daughter, Debra (Jack) Hill; sons, Steven (Cindy) and Robert McMillan; siblings, Sandra Hoover, Virginia Tracey, Sharon Mock, and Russell McMillan; four grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. Mac's first wife, Joyce Tilney McMillan, preceded him in death. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Destiny's Children Ministry, c/o Wallace Street Evangelical Church. Arrangements entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
