

Harlan K. Holly

July 26, 1929 - December 1, 2018

Harlan K. Holly,

Died at home December 1, 2018, in Fishers, Indiana. He was born in Minnesota in 1929, he grew up in Fargo, North Dakota and attended North Dakota State University. Harlan served in the United States Air Force during the Korean conflict, where he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for valor. After returning home, he earned his law degree from the University of North Dakota and enjoyed a successful and rewarding career, working for Lincoln National Corporation, in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. After retiring, he moved to Scottsdale, Arizona, where he lived until 2010. Harlan is survived by his wife, Ardith H. Holly; his three sons; and four grandchildren. His was a life well lived. He will be remembered for his kind manner, generous attention and profound loyalty. Those who knew him, loved him and enjoyed life a little more because of him. A memorial service was held at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., Fishers, Indiana on January 12, 2019 at 4:30 p.m.