

Harold E. Barnes

June 4, 1931 - December 9, 2009

Harold E. Barnes, 78, of Indianapolis, formerly of Evansville, IN, passed away December 9, 2009 with his family by his side. He was born June 4, 1931 in Sioux Falls, SD, to the late Harry and Lillian Barnes. After obtaining his degree in Accounting, Harold proudly worked for IT&T (International Telephone and Telegraph) as a Corporate Accountant for 35 years. After retiring he became the owner of West Central Credit Bureau in Minnesota. Harold loved nothing more than spending time with his family, especially his granddaughter. He enjoyed airplanes, and was a small plane pilot. Harold kept busy feeding the birds and squirrels around his home. He was very interested in politics, enjoyed reading, and loved to travel. He was a member of Holy Cross Lutheran Church. Harold is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Lois G. Barnes; daughter, Amy Seidl, and husband Francis, of Fishers, IN; granddaughter, Emily Seidl; sister, Carol Geske, of Sioux Falls, SD; and many nieces and nephews. Graveside services will be held December 16, 2009 in Sioux Falls, SD. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, December 19, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 8115 Oaklandon Rd., Indianapolis. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, National Kidney Foundation or your local animal shelter. Arrangements entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.
