

Harold "Hal" J. Thompson

August 19, 2008 - January 5, 2008

Harold J. (Hal) Thompson, 64, of Carmel, passed away after a short illness in St. Vincent Hospital on January 5, 2008. He was preceded in death by his parents, Blaine and Theresa Thompson of Greensburg; sister, Mary Pelkey and brother, Bernard Thompson. Hal is survived by his wife of 40 years, Judy Legner Thompson; sister Anna Marie (Don) Schwering; brother, Arthur (Cletis) Thompson; sister-in-law, Susan Cumby; brothers-in-law, Jeffrey (Angela) Legner and Richard (Peggy) Legner and several nieces and nephews; his dog which is his best friend, Mickey. Hal was very involved in the Indianapolis Rotary, Paul Harris Society, and as a board member in the Arthritis Foundation. He also founded Seniors Unlimited of Carmel and worked with Vericare of California. The family wishes to thank the wonderful nursing staff at St. Vincent Hospital and Hal's doctor, Dr. Bryon for their care. Family and friends will gather at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Road on (day, time, & date.) Memorial contributions may be made in Hal's name to the Arthritis Foundation of Indiana.