“ Papi as I have known him for many years was a great guy. He became family to me and was there for me when my Dad passed away. He came to many of my family functions as well. We shared many laughs and tears though the years at Burger King. Rick, Debbie, Becky, and Joann and families I offer prayers and that you find peace in knowing he will suffer no more. I have too many funny Papi stories to share. He touched my life as well as my families.

Papi was one of a kind. A few of my memories was. 1 time Papi I have a July party your invited. We just ask everyone bring something. Papi replied I'll bring all the kids ice cream. Lol. He always put others before himself. When we seen each other we always shared fishing stories. Fishing or just talking about it always put a smile on his face. Kinda like the smile he put on everyone else's faces whenever he was around. Even though he will be dearly missed his fight and pain is over. Papi keep those smiles going! You'll be missed.
