

Harold E. Wolf

April 21, 1925 - March 7, 2019

Harold E. Wolf

93, formerly of Mooresville, IN, passed away March 7, 2019. Harold was born the youngest of five children on April 21, 1925, in Sanilac County, MI, to the late William C. and Clara Turk Wolf. Harold was raised on the farm and intended to be a farmer. He married Mildred ("Milly") L. Moeller, May 1, 1948. Shortly thereafter he was diagnosed with polio and was unable to continue farming. He was encouraged by his pastor and friends to enter the teaching ministry and attended Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, IL, from 1950 to 1953. He taught for 37 years at various Lutheran schools in Indiana, Missouri, Michigan and Wisconsin. Upon his retirement he moved to Mooresville, IN, and became a member at St. John Lutheran Church in Indianapolis, IN. In May of 1992 he became the Director of Concordia University Wisconsin's Adult Learning Program in the Indianapolis Center until May 2001. Harold volunteered as "Greeter" at St. Francis Hospital in Mooresville for many years and was recognized with the Family Spirit Award in 2016.

Harold was preceded in death by his wife, Milly, in 2004; and his daughter, Jenny L. Sweeney (Don) in October of 2018. He is survived by his children, Charles H. Wolf (Grace) and Michael D. Wolf (Karen); seven grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, Ralph Moeller; and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Monday, March 11, 2019 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of
