“ Dear Dad,
I love and miss you so much! I wanted to make your life easier and happier. I always knew why animals and kids loved you so much. They seem to have a sixth sense and know who the good hearted people really are in the world. Sundays will not be the same without being able to call you and talk about anything and everything, but I know you no longer have any pain... Your daughter,
Michelle

“ Dear Harry & Beloved Family,
We were married on July 14, 1967 in Indianapolis, IN. On March 20, 1970 we had a beautiful baby girl, whom we named Michelle Renae. She was the apple of your eye. I knew you loved and cared about her from the moment she was born. Even though, we didn't stay together, you always spent time with her. She has grown up to be the most loving and caring person I know. I know you were very proud of her. I know you haven't been feeling well, but everyone should know that you were the kind of person that wouldn't ask for help. I understand and respect your wishes. You will always be loved and remembered. Our condolences go out to your family and friends. Love, Melanie & Family.

“ my brother, your death was sudden for us, none of us were prepared for the barrage of feelings within us. numb, shock, grieving, thoughts all over the place. we knew your passions for the pacers, the colts, dancing with the stars is what we always chatted about. and of course our dog buddies. you always called jerry your little buddy and gave me love and support with your phone calls when he died...I know you are there with him and mom.. your calls of 'this is brother' will be missed, I love you. sister pam “ Sorry to hear of Harry's passing. We were good pals when we lived on Crawford Drive in Indy. Lost touch when our family moved, but certainly have fond memories from those times. My sympathy to his family.

“ Pam, Sandy, Diane and Carol I was sorry to learn of your loss of Harry. although it's been many years,except for Pam that I've seen you all, old friends are never forgotten so I do send my condolences to you all. I don't think any of you ever were aware that Harry and I went to Eastwood Jr. High school together. I was just recently looking at my yearbook of 1957 and there he was an aspiring 8th grader. Once again,I'm so sorry for your loss. Dan, better known to you all as Danny
