“ Just learned of Harvey's passing from the dental School alumni magazine. So sad to hear of it. Harvey was a good friend and I always enjoyed my time with him in dental school and meeting him at seminars courses. Always so jolly with tremendous sense of humor. I have many fond memories of Harvey and it saddens me that he is no longer with us. Rest in piece my friend.

“ Dear Mom, Chris and Ivy! I can't put the right words on the pain and sadness I have felt since I got Ivy's message. I was driving down to the south of France to pick up Théo from his swim camp. The advantage of driving long distance alone is that one can think, and feel, and reminisce.

I was thinking about how I would describe Dad. And all the bad jokes he would make came back to mind. And the imprint he left on me...because Théo would now roll his eyes when I make a joke.

That to me, is true three generational love!

The two nights in Fishers last summer were of great importance to me and my family. To our family. Théo finally understood who those people were I have been referring to as my Indiana family!

When I shared the sad news with my friend, Pierre, best man at our wedding, his reaction was very clear: "You lost a part of you. And distance won't help."

I can't be with you tomorrow and in the days to come as I pick up Théo from swim camp and bring him back to Paris.

But whatever distances there may be, I think I can be with you in my heart and mind. Because there are so memories of every day life that just won't go away.

Much love, Andy

Mary, so sorry to hear about Harvey. We send our sympathy. This triggers many memories. Some go back to high school. Some are from our numerous reunions of the Class of '55. And At least one is a stop that Harvey made with us here in Chapel Hill. Thinking of our next reunion without Harvey is just very sad. Our kindness regards to you. Jack (and Pat Evans)
