“ Many years ago my grandfather was on his death bed in Sikeston Hospital. Grandma just couldn't seem to take the grief and I was trying to help them both. All at once Sis Helen walked in and took Grandma in her arms and held her. It was like an angel had moved into his room. Grandma just calmed down and a peace came over her. I have never forgotten the moment that God moved through Sis Helen to help my Grandma. You all remember her by Sis Masterson I am sure. A wonderful lady of God.
