

Helen Louise Keutzer Hutson

November 22, 1928 - November 1, 2011

Helen Louise (Keutzer) Hutson, of Medford, Ore., was born November 22, 1928, in a town about 20 miles south of Bloomington, Ind. called Harrodsburg. She attended Harrodsburg Elementary school and Smithville High School, graduating in 1946. She then received a full scholarship to Saint Vincent Hospital School of Nursing in Indianapolis, Ind., and received her Registered Nursing License in 1951. She worked in many areas of nursing, doctors offices, hospitals, geriatric, and was one of the first registered Industrial Nurses in California. Helen married Charles Hutson, whom she met while he was a Bus and Street Car Driver in Indianapolis, Indiana, in June of 1951, and they just recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Helen is a member of several organizations, Daughter of the Nile, Past Royal Matron of Amaranth, and a 50 year member of the Eastern Star. She loved music, singing, and dancing and participated in both round and square dancing.
