“ I'm sorry for your loss.

He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.

For if, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

“ Shirley, I am sorry for the loss of your mother. I always remember seeing her sitting on your porch on Bradbury. I didn't know she was a nurse so I am sure she was a wonderful caregiver for your family as well. You and your siblings are in my prayers.
