“ My Dad, Bill Carrier, loved your dad and always considered him his 'life-long best friend'. We're so sorry to hear of his passing. Dad still tells of his multiple night camp-out with Heinie when they were boys. He swears that they both came home heavier than when they started their adventure because Dad knew how to camp. I met you Dad a few years ago. What a kind and gentle man. Our thoughts and condolences to your family during this time.

“ We will miss seeing Heinie fishing at Lamb Lake. SO sorry to hear this news. We were out of town in Colorado or would have attended the service. My dad, Dr. Russell Lamb, enjoyed Heinie's participation in the "Wednesday Fishing Group" at the lake. Please know we are thinking of you. The Russell Lamb Family

“ I was very sad to have read, in your e-mail about Heinie's passing. I will always fondly remember the times when he and Thelma came to visit my family in Racine and the different times I visited them at their home. Sincerely

“ My sincere condolences to the family. You may not recognize my name, I am Otto Schakel's grandson. Henry and Ida were my greatuncle and greataunt. I last saw Heinie while working for USAir at Indianapolis International Airport. I regret I am unable to attend the viewing or service, but my thoughts and prayers are with you. What I remember about uncle Henry and aunt Ida is that their house was across from H. A. Waterman, and a bulldog named "Butch".
