“ We are saddened by the death of Herbie. We will always remember the good times at the 60's and 62's class reunions where we always sat together and enjoyed telling the same old stories
Gerri, we always thought of you and Herbie as our best friends from back in the day. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family through these tough times. As always, Jay and Carol Davis

“ Herb was a dear friend and will be greatly missed. He was my neighbor, work partner and FRIEND!! I remember all the FUN times we had at Tandem together... weekly beer-busts, softball, bowling, Halloween parties, hay rides and a few deal strategy sessions!! I could always count on Herb as a good friend!! He saw me through a divorce, marriage and getting fired. I could always count on Herb to be there when needed... he was one of the best friends ever!! May God Bless you Herb!! R.I.P., Your friend, Don Prifogle

“ Gerri,
I am so very sorry for your loss. It is difficult to put into words, but it is not difficult to tell you that you will get through this, as I know you and I know from experience the journey you now have to take. But, you WILL be fine in time. Take heart in knowing that you will not always feel like you do right now; it will get better. God is truly good and He will provide you comfort while you go forward.
It is also easy to tell you that you are much loved, by me and all the other people you have taken care of and helped in your life...and, there are thousands.

Love and hugs,
Shirley
