“ We are so sorry to have heard of Herb's passing too late. Gene Thompson worked with Herb for many years at Naval Avionics and enjoyed lake life at Lake Santee. Herb and Jo were great friends and will be greatly missed.

“ Our parents, Jim and Virginia Brown, enjoyed many years of friendship with Herb and Jo. We continue to carry many memories with us as we remember their sense of humor and loving personalities. The Rosemeyer's dedication to giving their son, Kenny, so many wonderful life experiences taught us much in raising our own family. We hope Herb's family will find peace in knowing that the Browns and the Rosemeyers are now together again revisiting the memories of their many trips to Nashville and the joy they had in watching Kenny enjoy his favorite genre of music! The Rosemeyers were the perfect example of a family of faith, love and commitment. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. ~ Dick and Linda Gilliam

I grew up with Herbie, he was 5 and me six! It was always Herbie, Buddy Patch and me, the four of us in our daily adventures fishing, swimming at the old Flowing Well, times at Grassy Creek, first and second woods etc. We were in sports at Warren Central - football - track etc. We ran around after he was married until the time he went in service. We lost track after that, reuniting about eight years ago - Herb was my oldest friend, I will miss him! - Dave and Fran Wilson
