Homa (Moshiri) Valiyi,

Was born April 8, 1936 in Hamedan, Iran. She was the sixth of eight children, including six sisters and one brother. Homa was a school teacher in her native Iran. In 1956, Homa married Kaykavoos Valiyi. They had four sons and two daughters and lived in Tehran, London, and finally settled in Indianapolis in 1982.

Homa is preceded in death by her parents; several siblings, and daughter, Mandana, who died soon after birth. She is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 66 years, Kaykavoos; four sons, Maazee (Jo) Valiyi of Europe, David (Mary) Valiyi of Fishers, Indiana, Nick (Ronda) Valiyi of Sellersburg, Indiana, and Kashy (Jennifer) Valiyi of Miami, Florida; and daughter, Maryam (Ed) Williams of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Homa was the proud grandmother of seven grandchildren, Jessica (Danny) Keifer of Nashville, Tennessee, Casson Valiyi of Los Angeles, California, Maissie Valiyi of Indianapolis, Isaac Williams and Lydia Williams of Indianapolis, Sara Valiyi of Miami, Florida and Sam Valiyi of Miami, Florida; and two step-grandchildren, Katherine Noble of Indianapolis, Indiana and Mallory Noble of San Francisco, California.

Homa had a kind, gentle spirit and found the good in any situation. She dearly loved her children and grandchildren and enjoyed the time they spent together as a family. She looked forward to Sundays when she would cook a traditional Persian meal and host the family for dinner. Homa was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2021 and remained strong until the end. The family requests donations to breast cancer research in lieu of flowers.

Arrangements are private and entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.
