“ The Bennett family is full of wonderful memories on Glenridge Dr.. We are so sorry to hear of Buddy's passing. He certainly added enjoyment to all the games played in the street and I remember a campout out in your backyard one time. What a wonderful neighborhood we had back in the day! I'm sorry I missed the service. I just found out. Condolences to all the family.

“ Buddy and I were good friends in the 7th and 8th grades at Little Flower. He was always fun to be around and had a good sense of humor.. Reconnected with him at one of the Scecina class reunions.

“ Buddy Nally was my first best friend. I lived next door and we played every day of our lives, until we moved in 1962. Our birthdays were almost the same (Buddy was 2 weeks older than me) and we learned everything together. He went to Little Flower School and I went to PS #68. My father's birthday was November 1 and that is a High Holy Day for Catholics. My dad convinced Buddy that the reason he got out of school every year on November 1 was because of my father's birthday. I think Buddy still believes that. Buddy was my first best friend and he was critical to my life, because when he and I were 11, my 13 year old brother died of Leukemia. I could not have made it through my life without Buddy being my best friend. Thank you, Buddy. I still love you. Denny Southerland
