

Jack Norman Kissner

August 21, 1927 - October 22, 2009

82, of Indianapolis, was born August 21, 1927 and passed away October 22, 2009. Jack was a World War II veteran who served in the United States Navy aboard the USS Block Island. After working 11 years for RCA, Jack worked as a sprinkler-fitter for Culligan Fire Protection for over 30 years, retiring in 1989. After retirement, Jack began painting acrylics and painted over 50 beautiful paintings that have been shared with many family and friends. He was a longtime member of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. Jack is survived by his lovely bride of 60 years, Teny; daughter, Jenny; son, Jack L. and his wife Christy; two grandchildren, Mike and Tori; two sisters, Betty Cole, and Sharon Rutledge and her husband John J. B.; three brothers, J. R. and his wife Maggie, Larry and his wife Lou, and Greg and his wife Kay. Jack has gone to meet the Lord along with his parents, Elmer and Lil; and five brothers, Harry, William, Robert, Delmar and Jerry. Jack was a loving husband, father, and grandfather, who took responsibility seriously as a provider for his family. He enjoyed fishing in both Indiana and in Florida, spending several years after retirement as a snow bird six months of the year. Throughout his life, Jack lived in the Ben Davis area, Plainfield, and then spent the majority of his life on Indy's eastside as well as Van Bibber Lake in Putnam County. Visitation will be Sunday, October 25, 2009 from 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St., with funeral services Monday at 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made to St. Matthews Episcopal Church.
