

Jack Lubbers

May 18, 1929 - January 10, 2010

80, of Fishers, IN, passed away January 10, 2010. John William Lubbers, Jr. was born May 18, 1929 in Louisville, KY, to the late John W. and Johanna (Butler) Lubbers. Jack served his country in the U.S. Army during Korean War. He graduated from the University of Louisville in 1951, and married Jane A. Roth October 18, 1952. Jack was employed with Phillips Petroleum Co. during the period of great retail market expansion by the major oil companies. He joined the firm as a trainee in 1954, and finished his career in 1981 as the Indiana District Manager, taking early retirement occasioned by his battle with Multiple Sclerosis. He was respected and liked by his business colleagues, and had a special gift for mentoring young up-and-coming managers. He was a devoted husband, the loving father of three, and the adored grandfather of ten. His four great-grandchildren were the start of what he expected to be at least twenty. He was a member of Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church. Visitation will be Sunday, January 17, 2010, from 3:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Monday at 11:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church, 10350 Glaser Way, Fishers, IN, 46037. Jack is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Jane A. Roth Lubbers; children, R. Mark (Teresa) Lubbers, Nancy L. (David) Cheesman, and Michael R. (Lisa) Lubbers, all of Indianapolis; grandchildren, Kristen (Brandon) Armitage, Kasey (Greg) Reder, Laura Cheesman, Michael (Dana) Cheesman, Betsy (Mark) Thompson, Maggie, Matt, Maddie, Ross and Anna Lubbers; great-grandchildren, Kyle and Lindsey Armitage, Max and Cameron Reder; and his brother, James J. Lubbers, of Muskogee, Oklahoma. He was preceded in death by his brother, George B. Lubbers of Naples, Florida. Memorial contributions may be made to the Indiana Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 7301 Georgetown Road, Suite 112, Indianapolis, IN, 46268, and/or Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church.
