“ Jackie was loved by all who met her. Jackie accepted people as they were. Jackie was an excellent nurse with a caring warm touch. Jackie's smile could light up a room and brighten your day. Jackie loved her Starbucks coffee and special treats. Jackie was deeply in love with her husband Dave, she adored her son Chad (Justin) she loved her Daughter-in-law Natalie, her brand new little grandson Colton, her cousin Tim, her furry best friend Sammy and her friends. Jackie loved life. She loved to travel and explore the beauties of our world. I trust now that Jackie is strolling down streets of gold, looking out at the ocean waves with a fresh cup of coffee, laughing and smiling healthy, and pain free. Jackie we will miss you but one day we will have a huge reunion in Heaven. I pray for peace for all of Jackie loved ones and friends.

“ Jackie had many gifts that she shared unselfishly. Her spirit was "sweet", she looked for the best in people and focused on those qualities. As a nurse she was caring and as a nurse manager she was fair, dependable and had integrity. Jackie told me, "I have the most wonderful parents", and she reciprocated by being a devoted daughter. I had fun with her, we complimented each other. Fond memories of cooking classes, wreath making, miniature gardening, art exhibits, baking cookies and of course, shopping in California, will be my comfort. I love her and she will be missed. Thank you Dave, Mary, Justin, Natalie, Tim and Colton for sharing your special person with me.

“ Jackie was such an example to us all of determination, faith, and hope for the future. To see her at Colton's shower, just 4 months ago, was to see a Grandma-to-be going full throttle to both entertain her guests and to shower Natalie & Justin with love. Jackie did everything full-throttle, on her own terms. I learned so much from her about life and living well. She will be so missed. My heart goes out to Dave, Justin, Natalie & Colton, who will one day miss the grandmother that he never knew.

“ I know Jackie was super excited to meet her new grandson and I know it was a joy for her to celebrate his arrival. May the joy she brought to each person she met be shared and remembered. Jackie was courageous and a true inspiration to everyone at the Surgery Center and she will be missed. I wish the family peace. -Julie Scotton
