“ Jackie and I worked together at H.R. Block for years. She started the phone center with little or no direction and made it hum after a couple years . She did the accounting with little guidance and sheer determination to get it figured out and done. She was not afraid to try and succeed. And succeed She did. She was nothing if not Spunky and full of life. She was also not afraid of being in charge. And if she was she rarely let on. She gave me my nickname Jancie which came due to her dyslexia and the reversing of the I and c. I remember at different get togethers dancing with her to "Who Let the Dogs Out". How fun she could be :) I'm very glad to have had the time we shared! I miss my friend as I know do all who's lives she touched. I love you my friend, and you are missed terribly. I know heaven is a lot more fun since you arrived !
Yours, Janice Gilliam

“ Jackie was an amazing person with a beautiful heart. She was always smiling and laughing. She was one of the first people I met when I started working for H&R Block. She brought a lot of light into this world and I will never forgot her.
