

James H. Cox

September 7, 1926 - January 20, 2010

83, of Watseka, IL, formerly of Indianapolis, passed away January 20, 2010. He was born September 7, 1926 in Princeton, IN, to Walter G. and Bertha (Hadorn) Cox. Jim served his country in the U.S. Navy. He graduated from Purdue University with a Bachelor's of Science in Civil Engineering. He married Bettye E. Brines, and she preceded him in death August 7, 1998. Jim began his engineering career with the State of Indiana working in the Department of Transportation. In 1968, Jim was hired by the City of Indianapolis as Planning Engineer and Chief Traffic Engineer, eventually retiring in 1991. Jim enjoyed memberships in the American Legion Post #25, the Institute of Transportation Engineers, the State of Indiana Registered Professional Engineers, and he was a life member of the Elks. In his spare time he was also a tutor for the adult classes at Warren Central High School. He was a member of Hazel Dell Christian Church in Carmel, IN. Visitation will be Sunday, January 24, 2010, from 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. A graveside service will take place Monday at 1:30 p.m., Central Time, at Maple Hill Cemetery, Princeton, IN. Jim is survived by his loving children, Jamie L. Neumann, Marcia D. Cox, J. Keith Cox; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of choice.