

James M. Davis Jr.

November 28, 1935 - February 27, 2017

James M. Davis, 81, of Indianapolis, passed away February 27, 2017. He was born November 28, 1935 to the late James and Pearl Krutz Davis. James was a graduate of Arsenal Tech High School, lettering in Football as Center/Long-Snapper, and received his undergraduate degree from Indiana University. He proudly served his country in the U.S. Army, where he was awarded the sharp shooter designation. James had a longtime career in insurance adjustments and was later employed in Maintenance at Justus Property Management, retiring in 1996. James was an avid sports fan, loving "all sports" but a particularly biased fan of the NY Yankees and Indianapolis Colts. He shared his passion for sports with all around him and was a longtime member of Pick of the Week Club and a past post season champion. He was an animal lover and bore the nickname "10th St. Jimmy" from his long residence on the E. 10th St. corridor of Indianapolis. James was a very honest man, a loyal friend, a loving father and husband, a man who loved life. Sorely missed and forever remembered. Visitation will be Friday, March 3, 2017 from 4:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. Funeral services will be Saturday, March 4th at 2:00 p.m. at the funeral home. James is survived by his son, Charles Gillman (Michelle); daughter, Angie Gillman Broman (Tim); grandchildren, Jennifer and Ben Gillman; Zach, Tom and Tim Broman; great-grandchildren, Logan and Lillian Broman; and long-time friend, Marshall Welton (Shatawn). He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Linda Davis.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Humane Society of Indianapolis (website:<http://indyhumane.org>).
