Yes, Gloria and I both worked for with Jim for a few years. He was an early supervisor as well for me. One memory I have to share is during Diana and Jim's wedding, Jim was trying to cut the wedding cake or something and the poor guy singed the sleeve of his rented tux on a nearby candle! It ended up well, though. Rest In Peace Jim!

“ I remember James from high school as a very serious and highly intelligent person. I am not surprised that he went on to become a chemical engineer. I extend condolence and prayers for peace to his family. May God hold you in comfort and may James rest in eternal peace.
