“ Dear Cous,

There are no words to express the loss in my heart.

I always knew when we were together I could count on us sharing smiles, funny and loving memories of our childhood.

The golden rule which I have tried to instill in my own children I know without a doubt is one of many you lived by as well. "Treat others as you would want to be treated" You lead by example Cous.

I know you are in Heaven with our family members, our loved ones who have gone before us.

Heaven is a Better Place Now.....

Love Always,

Lisa Kay

“ Thank you for allowing us to be part of this journey. Although we only knew Mark and Judy for a short time, we enjoyed Mark's sense of humor and wonderful personality, as well as Judy's loving care. Praying that you will adjust to your new life, surrounded by friends and family. Love Pam and Wilma.

“ I know I only was around you for 14 years but over my life I fell in love w the most amazing funny and sweetest uncle ever I love yu very very much I hope yur dancing in the sky and I want you to let the others know how much we love them yu are in a better place now unc I hope your now pain free love yu a lot

Uncle you are Uncle you were

I'll always remember you that's for sure

I hope your happy in your new home above

But I'm going to really miss your love

I know you are now pain y

looking down on the family and me

Tell the others we say hi

As you have said goodbye

You left us today 4:27

To go back home to Heaven

watch over daddy as he couldn't say goodbye

I know when we tell him he is going to cry

Husband , Brother , Son , Uncle , Grandpa , Cousin , and a Father

“ Mark was my brothers oldest son. As long as I can remember, Mark was a loving child, and caring adult. He loved the Lord with all his heart. He will be missed but, his memories will always live on. Thank you to all that supported him and brought him comfort through his tough days at the end but, that suffering is over now. He is at home with his mom and dad, and most of all his Lord and Savior. Thanks to his loving wife Ann for loving him and providing unconditional love and comfort....with love Aunt Margaret Gray
